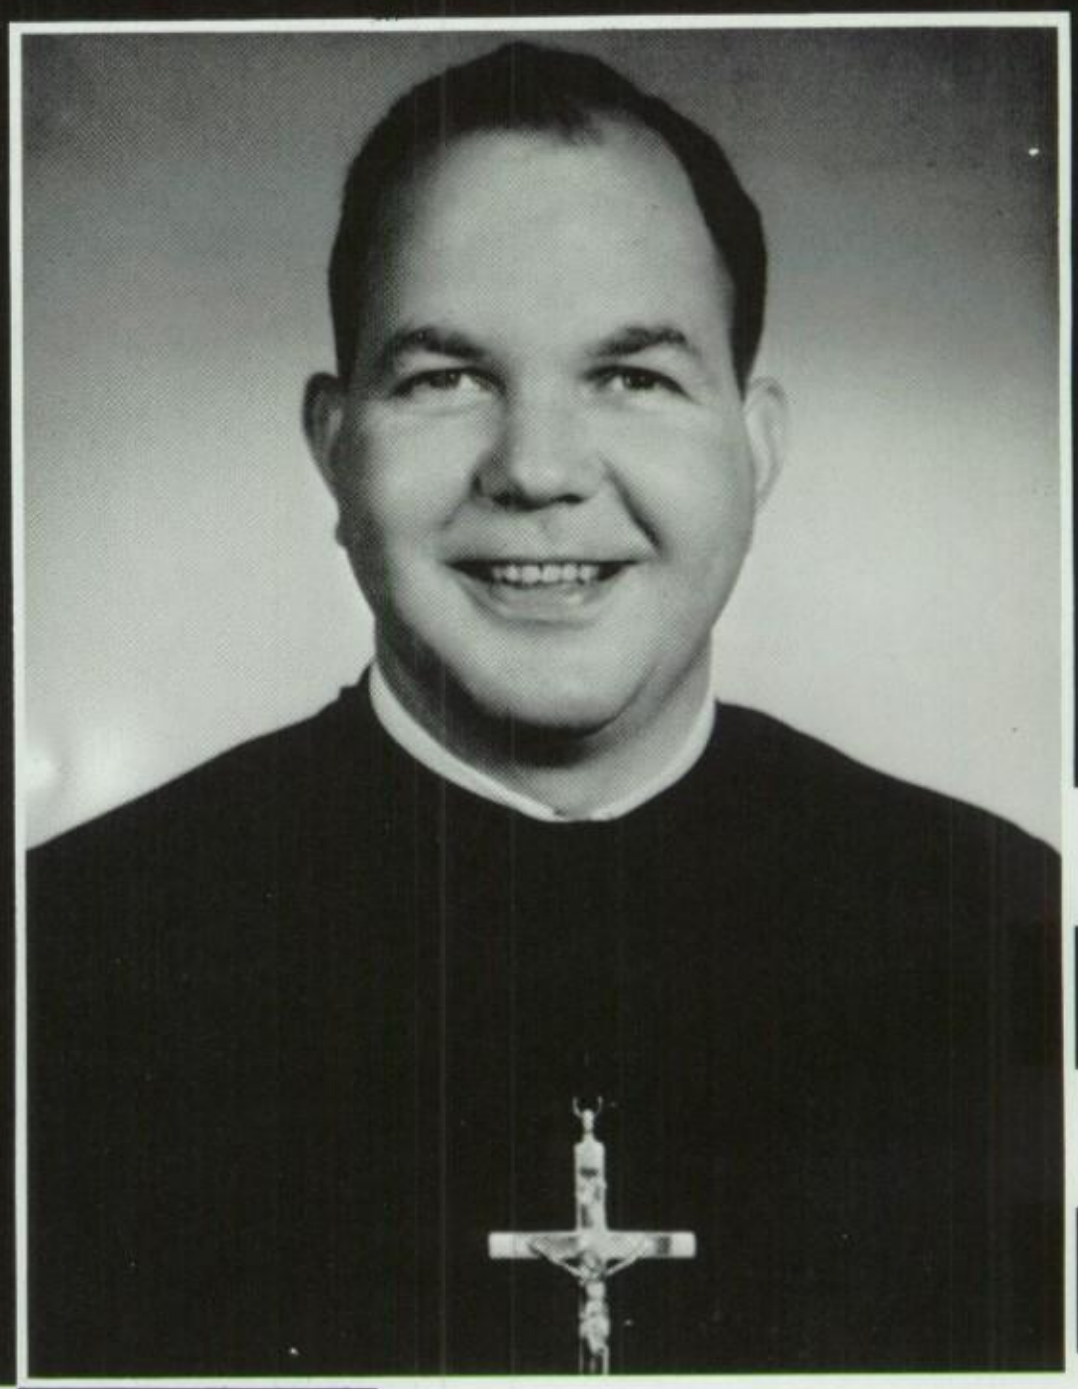
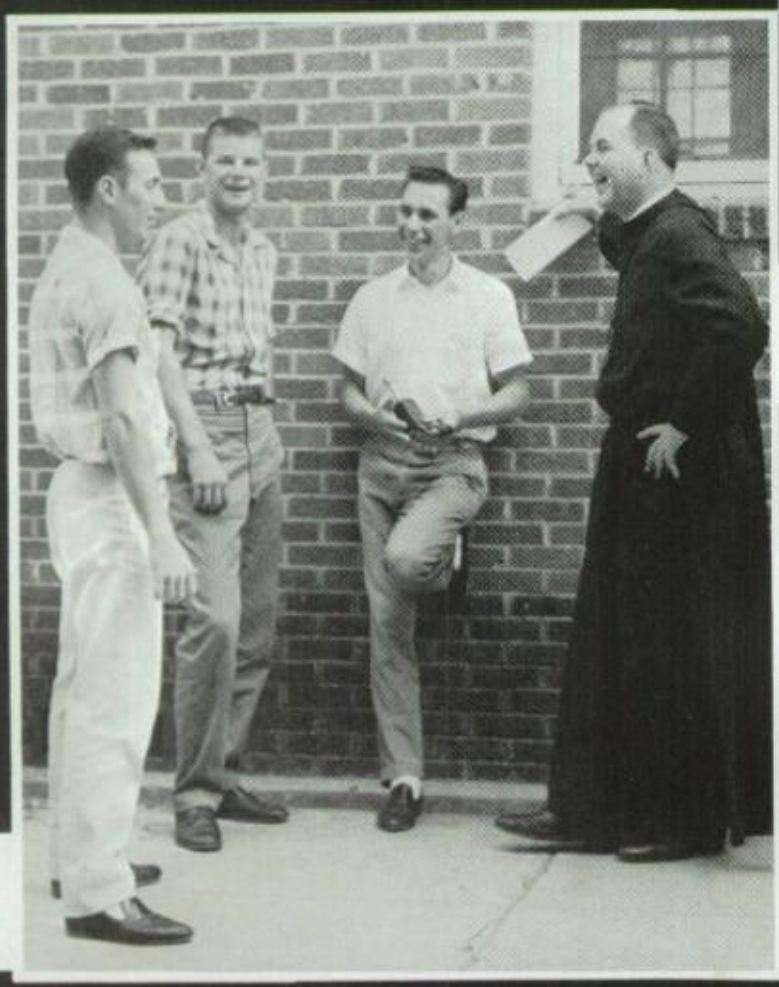
OMEGA, the last letter of the Greek Alphabet, has traditionally been the symbol of finality. Thus, the staff of the Menardian has selected the Omega as the theme of this final Menardian.

We who have been a part of Menard mourn its passing, and we rejoice at the expansion of Catholic education in the Alexandria area, symbolized by the new high school. The Menardian staff has tried to capture the spirit, the life, and the many faces of Menard. We have tried to bring you our interpretation of not only a year of transition, as the old is slowly being replaced by the new, but also a year of change and growth as teaching methods are refined and our education broadened.

In these pages, however, is only a part of Menard. To give a full picture of what Menard is, what it represents, what it accomplishes, would require more than just these few pages, it would require an appraisal by every student and alumnus of Menard. It can be said of Menard, it is all things to all men.





Brother Donnan, S.C.—as he is often seen conversing with students.

Dedication

Best wishes, Ol' —

Bro. Donnan, S.C.

TO PAY TRIBUTE TO A FRIEND is never a task. It can be truly said of Brother Donnan that he was a friend to all connected with Menard. In his four years at Menard, three of them as Principal, he gave much of himself to the school. In return, the students of Menard are always happy to see him on his return visits.

Brother Donnan has served, not only on the faculty of Menard, but also as the Vocation Director for the New Orleans Province of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart and is currently Principal at Catholic High in Baton Rouge.

As Principal Brother Donnan realized the need for a greater emphasis on Public Relations. He also upgraded the academic standards of Menard during his tenure here.

It is with pride, and gratitude, that we respectfully dedicate the 1966 MENARDIAN to Brother Donnan, S.C.

EVERY SCHOOL HAS A BODY AND A SOUL, the body being the physical plant and the soul being the students. Menard's body is diverse and sufficient to meet the many needs of its students.

The most prominent part of the campus is the main building which houses the classrooms, laboratories, main office, the Brothers' quarters and cafeteria, the library, and the varsity dressing rooms.

Directly behind the main building is the Rec Hall which includes the canteen, laundry, and refuge for students during inclement weather. The dormitory is home for Boarders during the week. It also contains the Boarders' Study Hall.

Meals are served to the students in the cafeteria, which also serves as a meeting room for various organizations at Menard. Students enjoy the use of the basketball and handball courts both during recess and Physical Education classes, and in the mornings before school.

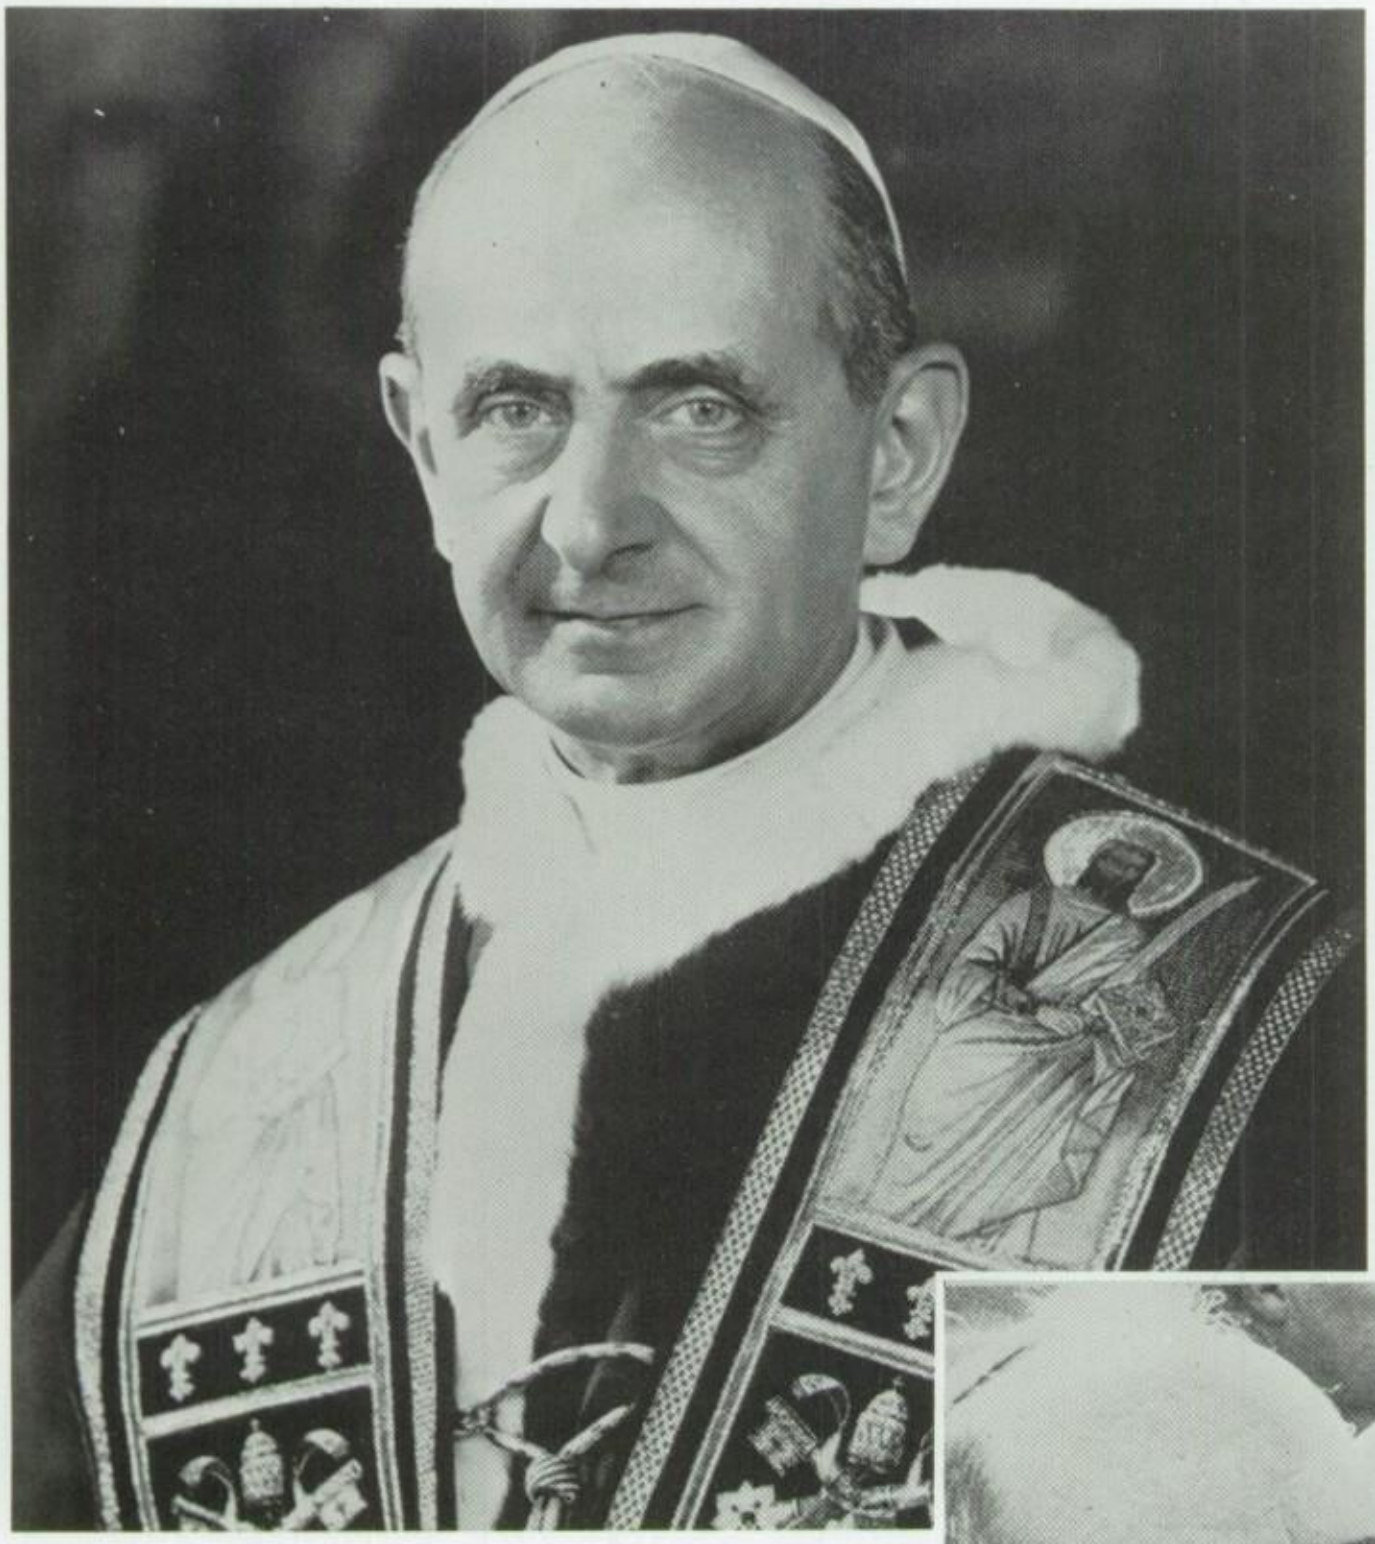
CURRICULUM



SEPTEMBER, 1965, was a month of strife and of war, but it was also a month of peace. Pope Paul VI, the Modern Apostle of Peace, made another in his series of historic visits, this time to the United States, for a special message to the United Nations General Assembly. We Catholics are proud of our Pope, for he is a special man among men; he is a man whose purpose in life is not to destroy, but to build; not to ruin, but to assist; not to seek wars, but to establish peace. It is in this spirit that our Holy Father came to America, and it is in this spirit that we at Menard look toward the future—with an open heart and faith in our fellow man, and in God.

MOST REVEREND CHARLES P. GRECO, D.D.

FOR THE PAST TWENTY YEARS Bishop Greco has been the spiritual leader of the 87,000 Catholics in the Alexandria Diocese, as well as a prominent figure in local affairs. In keeping with the times and supplying the necessary facilities for education in the Alexandria area, he has ordered the construction of the new Catholic High School designed to consolidate Menard and its sister school Providence and to provide for the future needs of the Catholics of the Alexandria-Pineville area.

Bishop Greco, along with his duties as head of the Alexandria Diocese, is also National Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus and head of the Council Commission on the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. All the students of Menard take special pride in our Bishop—in his interest in our school and in his notable achievements in promoting Catholicism and a deeper understanding among all Christians.

"WAR NEVER AGAIN"

MONSIGNOR H. CLINTON TEACLE

IN HIS POSITION as Superintendent of Education for the diocese of Alexandria, Monsignor Teacle is interested in the quality and calibre of the education which students in Catholic schools receive and is constantly striving to maintain the excellence of Catholic education. Through his efforts both the school and the student at Menard benefit from the fruits reaped by higher education.

Monsignor Teacle received his degree at Notre Dame University and is both a qualified teacher and priest. He has striven to make Catholic education in the Diocese a model to all others and instill the true spirit of Christianity in the students of Menard.

He instills in each student the incentive and will needed to better past achievements and can always be counted on to guide and counsel any student who wishes it.

In an address to the Mothers' Club, Brother Jean, Provincial Vocational Director, told Menard parents of their role in their children's future.

Replacing Father Terry Allen as spiritual advisor to the students, Father Leo Van Hoorne also teaches Marriage Course to the Seniors.

RELIGION

TO LOVE GOD THROUGH KNOWLEDGE OF HIM is the aim of the religion class. Menard students begin in their freshman year by attaining an understanding of the Christian life and man's relation to God.

Sophomores learn of the graces which can be gained through Christ's church in the Sacraments and the obligations which man has to God and to his fellow man as outlined in the Ten Commandments.

The heritage of the Jews in Christianity is explained to Juniors, who study the history of the Jewish people in the Old Testament and the development of Christ's church in the New Testament.

Before venturing out into life Seniors develop the concepts of Christianity through reason and logic. Marriage Course in the Senior year, as taught by Father Donald Damiens and Father Leo Van Hoorne, prepares each student of Menard for married life and parenthood.

Close personal contact with God is the end toward which each Menard student strives. Through the teaching of Religion at MHS, the individual student realizes that he is but one member of the great family of all men whose duty it is to attain their eternal salvation.

Before his recent change of assignment Father Terry Allen had been the Spiritual Advisor to Menard Students. His guidance had been both sought after and admired by the students at MHS.

Pat Bagley demonstrates sight translation as a necessary part of the study of Latin.

LANGUAGES

LANGUAGE COMPLIMENTS THE INTELLECT OF MAN, for man, and man alone of all the creatures of the earth, has the power not only of expressing his simple needs, but also of intelligently conversing with his own kind. It is language that gives man his social and economic links. At Menard languages are taught both as an art and as a means of communication. In the sophomore and junior years Latin I and II are taught in order to give the student a better understanding of his language and a glimpse into one of the greatest civilizations in history. Superceding state requirements, each student at MHS receives four years of English, both grammar and literature, stretching both his imagination and the horizons of his understanding.

Communication is an art and those on the Speech and Debate Team learn to perfect it to an exact art. Father Burleigh, starting with only a few experienced debaters, has been working hard with the Speech and Debate Team.

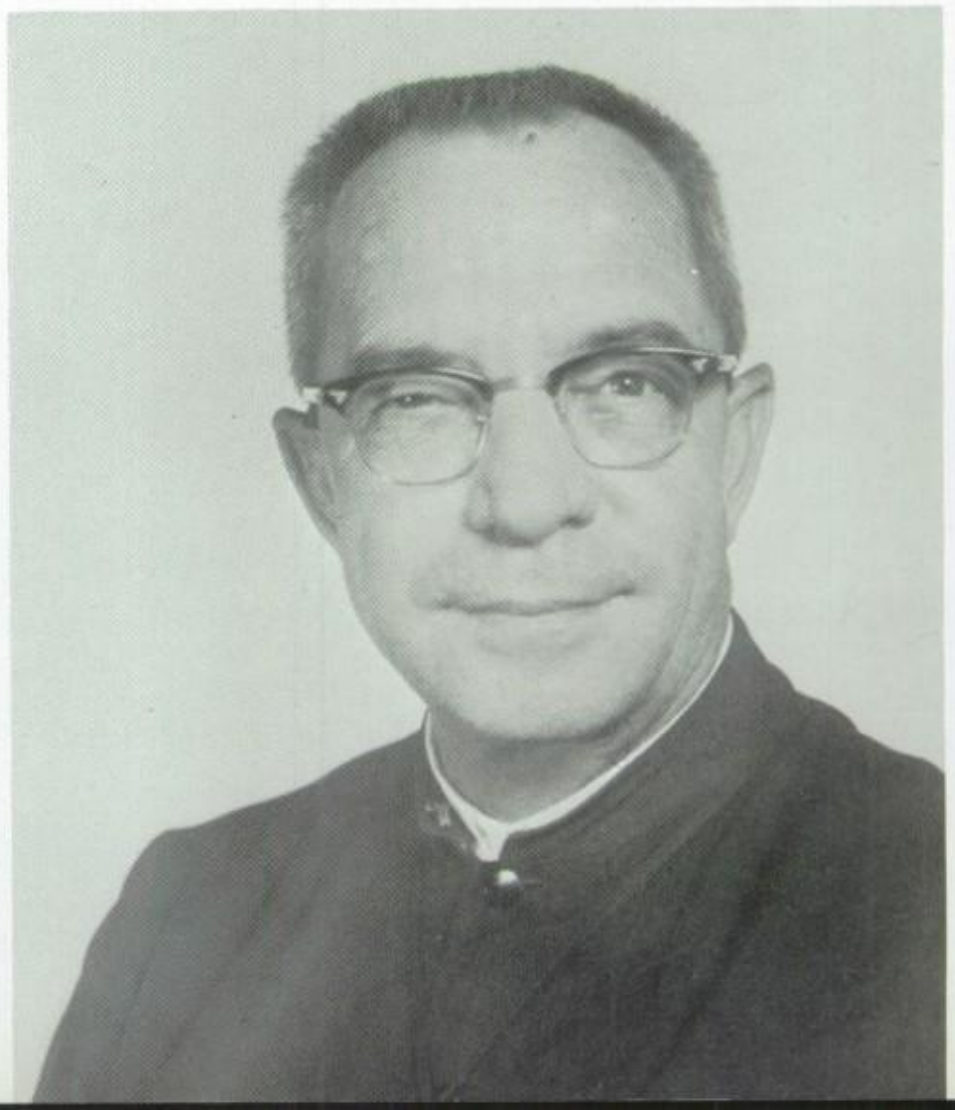
Word Power and the Summer Reading Program, as well as a new reading program introduced in schools conducted by the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, help to supplement and broaden the knowledge gained in English.

BROTHER MAX, S.C.

LATIN, THE MOTHER OF LANGUAGES, is ably taught by Brother Max. A native of Washington, Indiana, Brother received his Ph.B. from Loyola University of New Orleans.

Brother teaches Religion II, and Latin I and II, and is homeroom teacher for 10-A. He lists his favorite sports as basketball and baseball. Brother Max is well known to the people of Alexandria. This is his fourteenth year at Menard.

Brother Max, S.C.



FATHER C. C BURLEIGH

SPEECH AND DEBATE are the specialties of Father Burleigh. Father is an assistant at Prompt Succor and is coach of the Speech and Debate Team at Menard. Starting with only a few experienced members, Father Burleigh has already seen the fruits of his labors. At their first tournament the speech team won two superiors and two excellents and the debate team received an over-all rating of good. Father Burleigh is a native of New Iberia, Louisiana. He is assistant director of the CYO in Alexandria and works closely with the youth of this area.

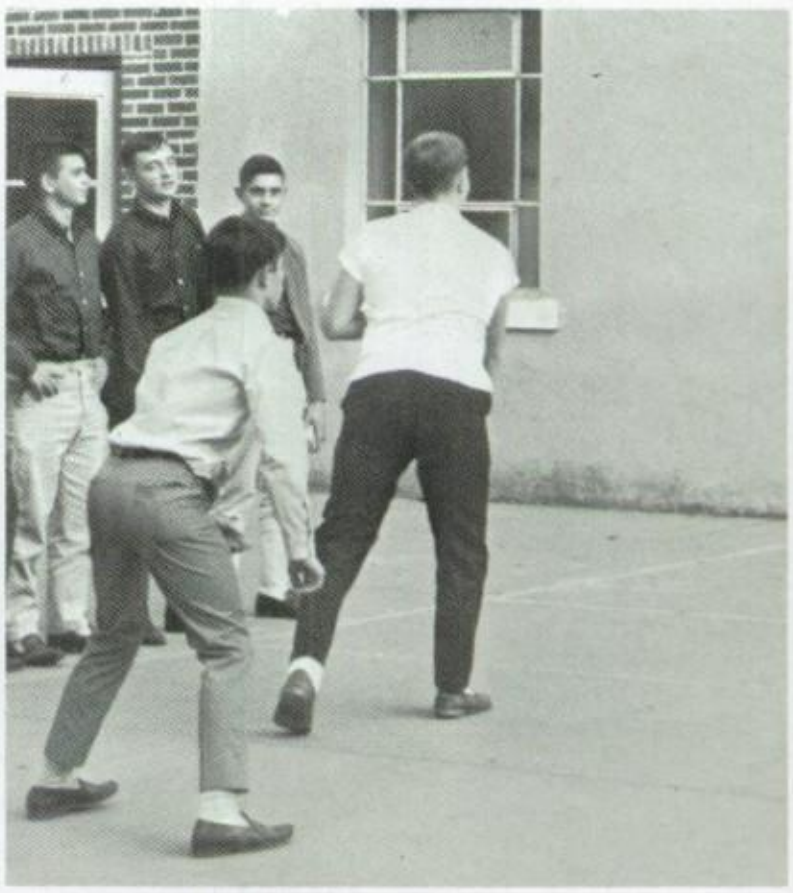
PHYSICAL EDUCATION

TO TRAIN THE MIND YOU MUST ALSO TRAIN THE BODY. This is what Menard strives to do in its Physical Education program. This program is divided into two parts, theory and practice. The theories of physical education are taught under the heading of Health and Safety, in which students learn everything from basic health practices to those safety measures required in activities ranging from hunting to water sports.

In the second part, the practice of Physical Education, students participate in intramural sports such as volleyball, football, and basketball, as well as in calisthenics. Here they learn not only sportsmanship, but also teamwork by learning to follow and to lead.

Part of the Physical Education program at Menard includes intramural sports such as handball.



Brother Dean, S.C.

BROTHER DEAN, S.C.

AS MENARD'S ATHLETIC DIRECTOR Brother Dean is always in contact with the various sports that Menard participates in both on the state-wide level and among Menard students themselves.

SCIENCE

SCIENCE TEACHES A MAN ABOUT HIMSELF and the world around him. At Menard the science courses are both varied and interesting. Starting in his Freshman year, a Menardian learns about the secrets of life itself in the study of Biology. Sophomores in the business classes take General Science, which gives them a broader scope of the world of science and introduces them to the fundamentals of Physics, Chemistry, and Biology. In his Junior and Senior years the student at Menard studies matter and energy in Physics and Chemistry.

Science, to the student at Menard, involves not only a study of the world of matter but of himself and how it affects him in his daily life. It teaches him to think and to analyze and to search below the surface for the answers.

Freshmen enjoy the benefits of the new Biology Lab in their study of Protozoa.

Coach Bob Mahfouz

COACH BOB MAHFOUZ

COACH MAHFOUZ'S SUCCESS as a football coach is by now well known and widely established. After only three years as head football coach at Menard, he has made the Eagles a team to be both respected and feared in State AA football. He also coaches the track team and teaches General Science and Biology. A native of Alexandria, and a Menard alumnus, Coach Mahfouz currently holds a B.A. from Southeastern and Louisiana College and is working on his Master's at L.S.U. His hobbies include softball and basketball and his favorite sport is football.

In February Coach Mahfouz accepted an offer by Southeastern College to be Assistant Football Coach. At Southeastern Coach Mahfouz will be in charge of the defensive line.

Brother Vincent explains the relations between Cartesian and Polar equations to the Senior Trig class.

Coach Jerry Lavespere explains the Pythagorean Theorem to Sophomores in terms of plane geometry.

MATHEMATICS

THROUGH MATH THE STUDENT LEARNS TO ANALYZE and evaluate the information presented him. Mathematics is not so much a system as it is an idea, and the ideas of mathematics are well presented in the courses offered students of Menard. The new math has been introduced into both algebra courses and into the senior math course.

Freshmen at Menard start off with Algebra I, in which they are introduced to the concepts of higher mathematics and reasoning. Sophomores learn not only the traditional Euclidean geometry, but also solid geometry and trig. The new math concepts are expanded in the junior year with Algebra II. Senior mathematics are devoted mostly to trigonometry, and an introduction to the higher forms of math such as calculus. Mathematics at Menard prepares students to face the broader offerings of college courses and aids in forming their powers of reasoning and analysis.

BROTHER VINCENT, S.C.

AS MODERATOR OF THE YEARBOOK Brother Vincent is annually faced with the problem of seeing that the staff meets the deadlines on time.

Coach Lavespere has been named as the Eagles new Athletic Director for 1966-67.

SOCIAL STUDIES

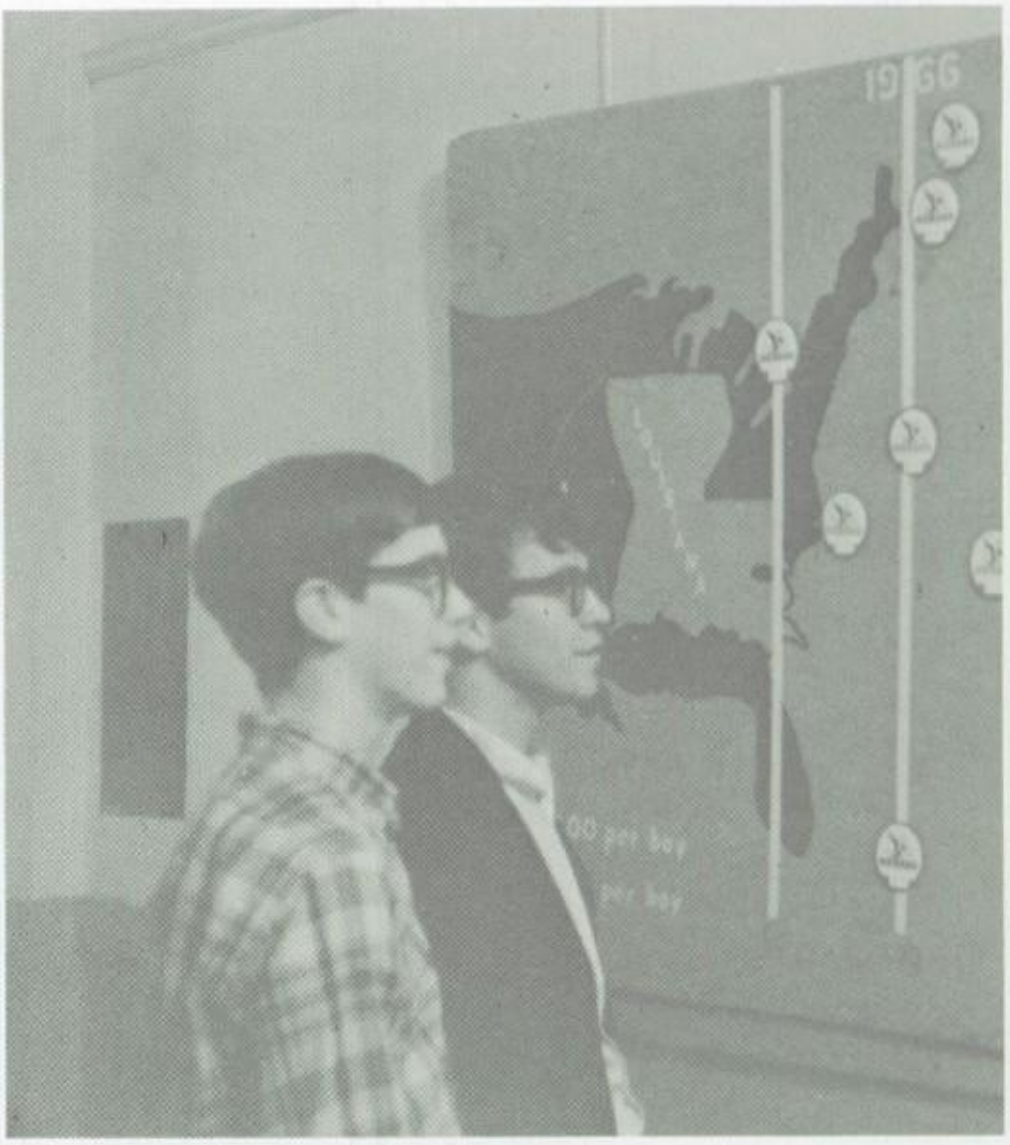
SOCIETY DEMANDS ORDER THROUGH LAW. Through Social Studies, the students of Menard learn the great heritage of Americanism and the obligations and privileges of freedom.

Through the Civics course, Menard students learn the obligations and rights which they possess as citizens in a free society, and the political structure of the United States.

World History enhances the student's appreciation of the valuable heritage left him by the peoples of ancient civilizations and of the trends of the past which have led to the traditions of the present.

Seniors take a look at both the American tradition and the forces which are presently threatening to destroy it. They study the history of America from the Indians to the present day and learn of the Communist menace which threatens to destroy not only America, but also the principles for which she stands.

It is through a determined effort and the awareness of responsibility which Social Studies creates that Menard students will grow to be responsible citizens in the world of tomorrow.



Jim Swinnen and Gary Swinnen view the progress of their classes as the student body puts Social Studies into practice in the Mission Drive.

Seniors are taught American History and the Communism Course in the same manner as college courses are conducted.

Standing alone at the base of the high school hill are the freshmen. Confident after having been looked up to during their last year of elementary school they now find themselves looking up. To ascend this four year height, and again to be at the top, is the ambition of the freshmen.

In the beginning, the freshman sees his sophomore year just a few paces ahead, but as the school year progresses he finds the climb is much higher than he expected. Realizing his status he finally slows down to fulfill the task that remains before him, to take one year at a time.

As one's stay at Menard increases, he becomes greatly aware of an enthusiastic spirit which carries our school. In his second year, he wishes to become a part of this, Menard's essence.

Awareness of responsibility and maturity clear the minds of these Menardians, insuring competent leadership for the future, as perhaps their most important school year draws to an end. Their real test will come next year as they enter the new school, Menard's successor.

JUNIORS

11-A class officers: Charles Randall, Secretary; Sean Hussey, Vice-President; Larry Landry, Treasurer; and Bruce Wallace, President.

Juniors Victor Vead and Monty Rizzo arouse school spirit before the Opelousas game.

NEXT IN LINE for the seniority, juniors strive to prove their readiness not only for the honors but also for the hardships of their future position as leaders.

Preparation for the next term leads these scholars through rigorous training. This is the year in which they were required by unwritten standards to show their capabilities and give themselves unhesitantly to complement Menard's reputation.

Quickly the final term of Menard closes, leaving juniors with a tremendous task, that of building up spirit and reputation for a new school. If their previous loyalty reigns, this new institute will have no trouble, for Menardian juniors are well suited for leadership.

Confraternity Sponsors Soap Drive

Gathers Over 7500 Bars

IN ANSWER TO A LETTER from Capt. Ronald Rod published in the Clarion Herald the Menard Confraternity undertook the project of collecting bars of soap for Viet Nam. Under the guidance of moderator Brother Elbert the Confraternity members hit Alexandria with a publicity drive of posters, spot announcements on radio and TV and enlisted the help of many local groups. When it was over they had netted over 7500 bars of soap.

In a spirit of "Ecumenism" the Confraternity joined the Providence Sodality in bi-monthly meetings.

Annual activities include the Christ the King ceremony, the Living Rosary, and the erection of the nativity scene.

Under the supervision of Brother Bennett, S.C., the Key Club sponsors many activities and projects. One of these is the Sweetheart Dance. To offset its expense the Key Club sponsors the Handsome and Ugly Contest. A portion of the proceeds is given to the Toy and Doll fund. This dance is one of the largest and best dances the Key Club sponsors.

Staff Produces Final Annual

FOR FORTY YEARS the MENARDIAN has provided the students with a permanent record of their life at Menard. To be found in this year's edition is the story of Menard's final year. Every aspect of student life is represented, so that the Menard Graduate will be able to recall all the things that constituted his years at Menard.

Editor-in-Chief Jim Swinnen, under the guidance of Brother Vincent Bono, has combined the efforts of the various staffs to provide the students with a yearbook that will prove a lasting asset.

Numerous responsibilities are lifted from the shoulders of the editorial staff by the various staffs, thus allowing them to devote their time and efforts to the goal of preserving in the yearbook the spirit of Menard 1966.

Mothers' Club Western Round-up Scores Big Success

VITAL to the life of Menard, the Mothers' Club has devoted many hours of service to the school. This, however, is not the club's principal duty. The aim of the Mothers' Club is to foster an understanding between the parents of Menardians and the faculty.

Through the years the Mothers' Club has become an important service organization. By sponsorship of various projects, the club achieves its purpose.

A Silver Tea, a rummage sale, a shower for the Brothers and a scholarship fund are all projects which the Mothers' Club sponsors.

Probably the largest Mothers' Club project is the Western Round-up. Every year the school yard is transformed into a western town. Game booths and refreshment stands are set up in a western atmosphere. A Barbecue Dinner is served by the Mothers in the cafeteria. Much credit goes to the sacrificing men and women and students who work so diligently to make the Round-up the success it is. This year's Round-up grossed $2500.

The Mothers' Club is under the direction of Mrs. Simeon Thibeaux, President; Mrs. Vandersypen, Vice President; Mrs. Vicknair, Secretary; Mrs. Chandler, Treasurer; and Mrs. Vead, Parliamentarian. Brother Cosmas, S.C., is the moderator of the Mothers' Club.

Alumni Involved in Many Menard Activities

A.M. Cicardo prepares the ingredients for the Chicken Gumbo Dinner.

HIGHLIGHTING THE YEAR for the Alumni Association are the events connected with the Homecoming game. On the night of the game, Susan Fett was crowned Homecoming Queen by Mr. Quinton Barnidge. The title of Homecoming Queen is bestowed on the girl who has sold the most season tickets to the Menard football games.

After a victory over the Jena Gaints the Alumni sponsored two dances, one for the Menard students and another for the graduates.

Because of steady rain, the annual pep parade, another event of the Alumni, was not held.

The Alumni aided the Junior class by holding a Chicken Gumbo Dinner. Half of the proceeds were given to the Juniors to help pay for the Junior-Senior Prom.

Officers for the year are: Mr. Quinton Barnidge, President; Mr. Toppy Hunter, Vice-President; Mr. Joe Serio, Secretary; and Mr. Jesse Lohman, Treasurer.

Athletic Association Aids Sports Program

ALTHOUGH THE PRIMARY purpose of the Athletic Association is to help the athletic program at Menard, the Association has proven to be a service organization for the entire school. Aid to the Athletic program comes in the form of new equipment paid for by the sale of Quarterback Tickets.

The Association continues to pay the balance due on Menard's new bus. An annual event of the Association is the All-Sports Banquet at which outstanding athletes are honored for their accomplishments in football, basketball, track, and baseball.

Baseball Team Continues Assault on State Playoffs

MENARD CAPPED THE GREATEST sports season in its forty year history with a first place finish in district 3AA baseball. For the first time the Eagles journeyed to the state playoffs in all four sports.

Baseball and football highlighted the season as the Eagles posted perfect district records in their travels to state. The football district championship was the first in the high flying Eagles long history; and in baseball it marked the seventh in as many years. The track squad was led by Bruce Davis who broad jumped his way to third in state. Missing their bid for first in basketball, the Eagles found themselves in a district playoff for second place. The ensuing victory assured an Eagle perch in the state championships.

FOR THE SEVENTH STRAIGHT SEASON the Eagles carried district 3AA in baseball, this year with a 6-0 record.

Leesville and Tioga set the pace as the Eagles rolled over them 16-2, 15-0. Defeat of Jena ended the first half of competition.

After squeaking by Leesville in the second half opener, the Eagles quickly repeated the results of the first half downing Tioga and Jena in turn.

By defeating Jena Menard secured a place in the playoffs and for the seventh year their opponent was the Opelousas Tigers. But the Eagles could not stop the Tigers assault losing two in a row to determined Opelousas.

Cheerleaders bring on the Eagles to open the season against Bunkie.

Menard Primes for State in Win Over Bunkie, 33-0

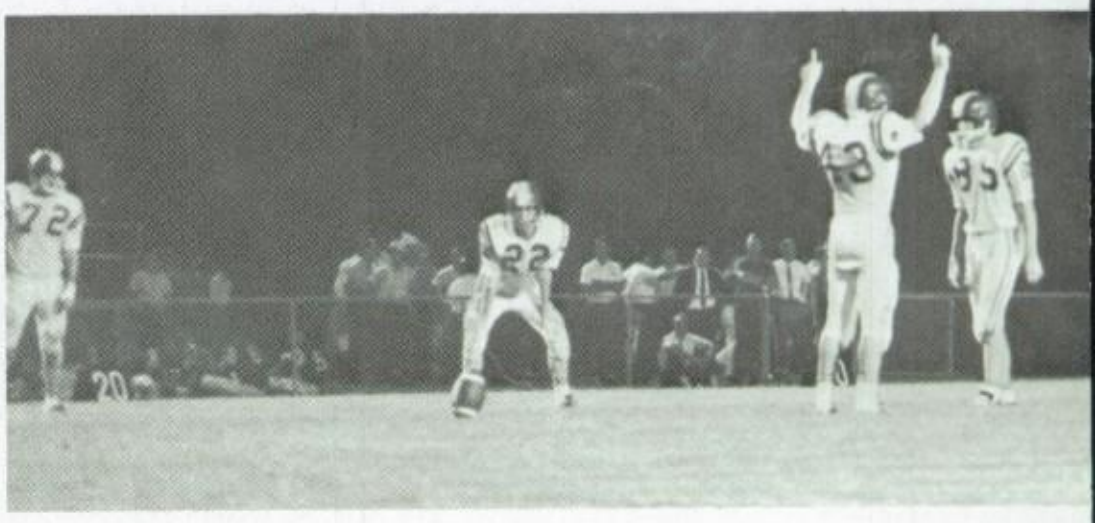
FOLLOWING A POOR SHOWING in their debut in the Cosmopolitan Jamboree, the Eagles came back to score an impressive 33-0 win over the Bunkie Panthers.

Scoring only once in the first period, the Eagles seemed to come alive in the second and third quarters. Menard tallied 13 points in each of these while the fourth period was turned over to reserves.

Two TD passes from Paul Smith to Larry Mathews, a 54 yard run by Larry Landry, and 7 yard sprints by Johnny Caesar and Paul Smith accounted for the Eagle scores.

The Menard defense ranked high in the game as it allowed Bunkie 79 yards total offense while the Eagles rolled up 338 yards.

Raymond Michiels sets himself to kick-off in the Cosmo Jamboree.



Larry Landry skirts right end while one of the Pineville defenders is erased from the play.

Menard—7 Pineville—0!

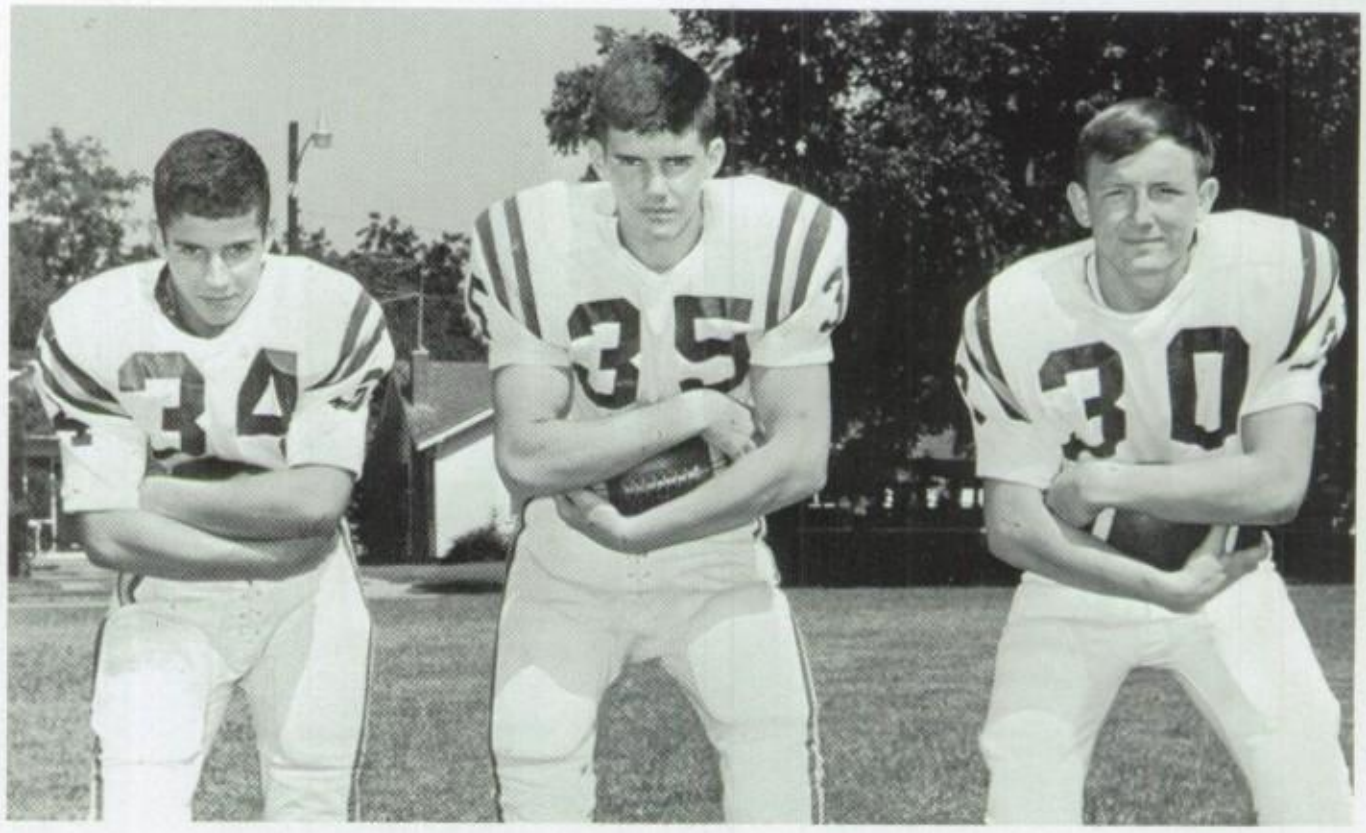
Larry Mathews breaks loose and scampers for good yardage in the Pineville game.

Eagles Claw Rebels, 7-0

EIGHT YEARS OF FAMINE! For so long had the Eagles been thwarted in their attempts to defeat the Pineville Rebels. And when victory finally came, how sweet it was!

Undaunted by a wet field and intermittent showers, the Eagles maintained a tight defense throughout. The first half saw neither team penetrate deep enough for a score. But as the second half opened Menard's offense clicked. Paul Smith guided the Eagles downfield in a steady march and capped the drive with a 24-yard pass to end Ray Michiels for the game's lone tally.

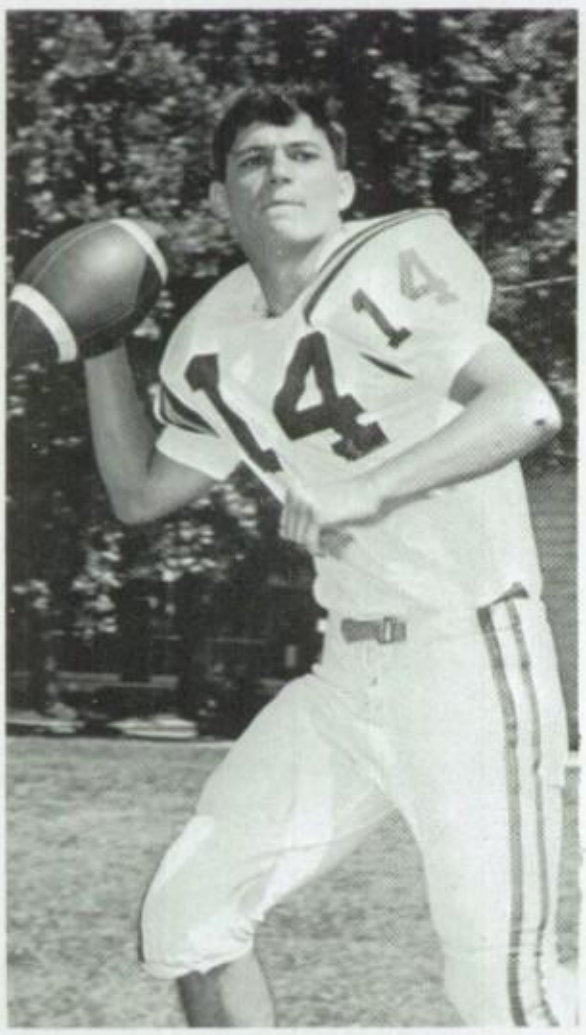
Stung by the quick Eagle score, the Rebs struggled valiantly to reverse the situation, forgetting they faced a determined opponent. The Bob Riley-led defensive charge choked any sustained advances by Pineville and clinched the Eagle's first victory in nine years.



FULLBACKS: Tony Willis, Bill Hayne, and Gary Mathews.

Menard—13 Tioga—6

PAUL SMITH, quarterback, Second team, All District, 5 T.D. passes.



WITH FULLBACK BILL HAYNE sidelined because of injuries, the Eagles entered the Tioga game against the best team the Indians had ever fielded.

On the first play from scrimmage, Larry Landry scampered 91 yards to paydirt. Raymond Michiels missed the extra point and the score stood 6-0. It remained that way until the third quarter when Paul Smith sprinted 32 yards for the second Eagle TD. The extra point kick split the uprights and the Eagles were ahead to stay.

Not to be refused, however, the Indians fought back valiantly and scored on a 1 yard plunge to stay alive. Tightening their defense the Eagles held Tioga in check for the remainder of the game, registering their third straight victory, 13-6.

Johnny Caesar gallops to a first down behind the blocking aid of Mike Riche in the Natchitoches game.

Raymond Michiels, with Paul Smith holding, kicks the extra point in the Tioga game.

Marksville—25 Menard—7

RIDING A THREE GAME WINNING STREAK, the heavily favored Eagles confidently journeyed to Marksville. But in the first half they were soon jolted into the realism that they were up against an overpowering Marksville team.

Menard could not mount any effective attack through the first quarter; only a stalwart defense repulsed the determined Marksville eleven. The Eagles broke the ice late in the second quarter on a 29 yard run by Larry Landry.

The second half fared far worse for the Eagles as Marksville, under their quarterback Don Couvillion, scored two fast touchdowns in the third period and added two more tallies in the final frame. The aroused Tiger defense held off Menard to win 25-7.

Ferriday—19 Menard—7

BEFORE THE CONTEST with Ferriday the Eagles were sporting a 1-0 mark in district play. But Ferriday capitalized on Menard errors to piece together a 19-7 win.

Of the 3 Bulldog tallies, one was a 73 yard punt return and another was an 84 yard fumble recovery run. After that the Eagles settled down but the damage had already been done.

Menard led in all statistics, but were hurt badly by being penalized 70 yards and by losing four fumbles.

The lone Eagle tally was an 11 yard pass from Paul Smith to Larry Landry late in the final period.

RIGHT HALFBACKS: Paul Redmond, Larry Mathews, Ronnie Mayeaux, and Johnny Caesar.

LARRY LANDRY First team halfback, 814 yards rushing, 6 touchdowns, 36 points.

MANAGERS: Doug Chenevert, Wayne Gremillion, Mike Villard, and Brian Saybe.

COACHES Crenshaw, Horn, and Mahfouz show anxiety as the Eagles meet stiff opposition.

Menard—0 Springhill—0

DEFENSE PLAYED THE KEY ROLE in this game, which saw the Eagles bounce back after two straight defeats to hold Springhill, a real powerhouse, to a scoreless tie.

Springhill was heavily favored but the Eagles were prepared and felt confident they could stop the Lumberjacks.

Though the Eagles were held to 75 yards total offense compared to 200 yards for Springhill, neither team made a serious threat to score, the only drive being Springhill's march to the Eagle 20, there to be held on fourth down by a fired-up defense.

LARRY MATHEWS, Second team All-District, halfback, 5 touchdowns.

QUARTERBACKS: Steve Smith, Ronnie Melder, Paul Smith and Chip Songy.

Menard Caps Non-District Play, With 11-8 Record

MENARD BEGAN ITS BASKETBALL SEASON with a loss to Bolton, the first of three to this AAA team; the other AAA team in the area, Pineville, also handed the Eagles three defeats.

Tournaments were not the best part of Menard's season as the Eagles lost to Bolton at their tournament and to Pineville at both the Tioga and Rapides tourneys. But a ray of light shone through at Opelousas as the Eagles captured second place losing only to Opelousas.

But the best was yet to come. Traveling to Montgomery the Eagles triumphed 98-79 to set a school record and finish their non-district season with an 11-8 record.

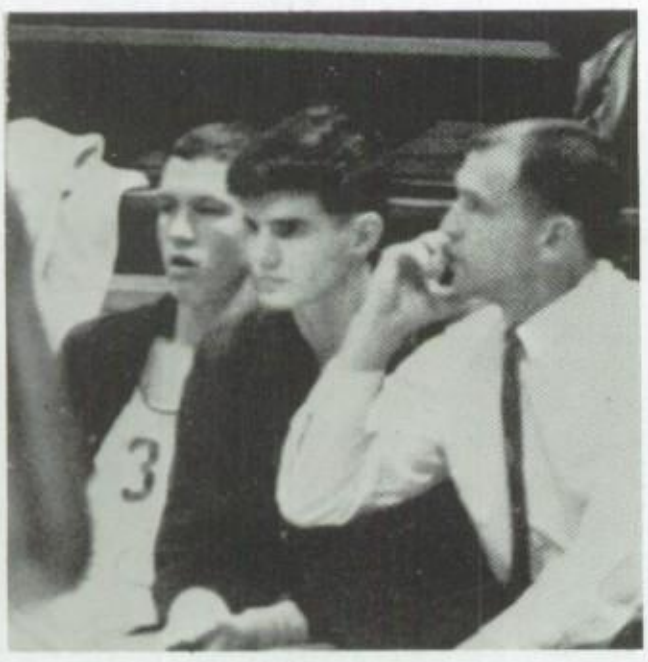
Menard Falls Short of Berth in Playoffs

OPENING THEIR DISTRICT SEASON AGAINST Jena the Eagles lost to the powerful Giants. Bouncing back Menard downed both Leesville and Tioga, but lost to Ferriday and the reigning district champs Natchitoches.

Menard's defeat of Leesville started the second round of play; Ferriday was the next team to go down under the Eagles attack as did the Tioga Indians. Menard had its last chance for a berth in the state play-offs shattered as Natchitoches squeaked by in the last ten seconds to win. Jena ended Menard's season as it began it defeating the Eagles and leaving them with a 5-5 record in district.

Fans cheer Eagles on.



Will they stop him?

Why didn't you do that before??

ACTIVITIES

Susan Fett Heads Homecoming Court

Susan Fett, Homecoming Queen, is escorted by Mike Riche.

The blazing "E" signifies the fiery spirit of the Eagles.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES were highlighted by a decisive Eagle victory over Jena. Although the traditional student parade was rained out, Menardians maintained high enthusiasm.

Susan Fett became Queen after selling the most season tickets at Providence. Mike Riche topped Menard's list to become the Queen's escort.

Each year these Homecoming activities are sponsored by the Menard Alumni. Students look forward to these functions as is shown by their attendance and spirit.

Mike Riche, Queen Susan Fett, Simmy Thibeaux, and Margaret Rine join in pep rally activities.

Menardians at Athletic

MENARD HONORS good sportsmanship and excellent physique at our annual Athletic Banquet. This event is important to the school as well as to those who receive the awards. In keeping with tradition, the Athletic Association presented a huge check to Brother Cosmas.

Parents seemed to be more excited than their sons as the awards were given. The night exercise closed, leaving only happiness in the hall.

Guests of honor and faculty are seated before the cherished awards.

Praised and Feted

Banquet

Award winner Johnny Flynn receives a kiss from his mother.

Charley Hennigan, guest speaker, congratulates award winners. Bob McGlothlin and Tom Mathews.

Some of the original charter members of the Athletic Association stand behind a huge check presented to Bro. Cosmas.

Spectators at the 1965 Athletic Banquet listen attentively as the ceremonies progress. The banquet was held in Convention Hall.

Menard's Confraternity and the Providence Sodality sponsored many joint projects including a delightful dance.

Skip Riche, as Old Man Time, illustrates the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom, "Time Flies".

Sweetheart Dance Crowns Social Events

THROUGHOUT THE YEAR the students of Menard and Providence are offered a chance to escape their studies and attend one of the Menard-Providence dances.

Hotel Bentley furnished the scene for the Key Club Sweetheart Dance. The Anniversary Ball, the Soc Hop and the Confraternity-Sodality Dance were held in Providence Gym. The Mossmen provided music for the Soc Hop and the Fugitives for the Confraternity-Sodality Dance.

Highlighting the evening for the Key Club Sweetheart Dance was the crowning of the Sweetheart. The honor was bestowed upon Christy Foltz with Cindy Bize as her maid. Music was provided by the Capris.

The Brethren added an unexpected performance to the Sweetheart Dance.

Sweetheart Chris Foltz is escorted by Bill Hayne, and her Maid of Honor, Cindy Bize, is escorted by Jacques Pucheu.

Bill Hayne crowns Chris Foltz as Key Club Sweetheart.

The Queen and her court discuss the economic problems that beset their small nation.

Professor Kokintz (Terry Young) —far right—receives his commission from the President of the United States (Ronnie Fiorenza) to recover a stolen nuclear weapon. General Snippet (John Montgomery) looks on approvingly.

MENARD'S SENIOR CLASS along with the Senior Class of Providence gave their annual play last year in a successful presentation of The Mouse That Roared.

Satire accented the play strongly. It was a story of a small nation's attempt to receive American aid by declaring war on the United States with the intention of being defeated. This revenue from the U.S. was to be used to revive the economy which had been ruined by American capitalists.

Ironically when this nation decides to invade she pulls a surprise victory. The story ends there leaving the audience to form their own opinion of the outcome.

Seniors Jim Gabour, Mike Geiger, Theresa Conques, Vickie Dean, and Marilyn Webb, rehearse their parts in the play.

STATE RALLY WINNERS: Paul Haworth, Pat Sanchez, Lee Gremillion, James Gabour, Chip Songy, Buddy David, Glen Saucier, Warren Vidrine.

Rally Winners Are the Pride of Menard.

EDUCATIONAL STANDARDS at Menard rank among the highest. Proof of high academic status is verified strongly each year by the efforts of the young men chosen to represent all Menardians.

These students have earned a glowing reputation among competition present at these rallies. Rallies in which Menardians have excelled themselves are: the Cenla Rally, the Northwestern Rally, the CBEA Rally, and the State Rally.

Having gained recognition at these meets, students reflect honor upon the educational standards of Menard. This recognition is shared by the school as a whole.

CBEA Rally participants: Ken Johnson, Warren Vidrine, Greg Gormanous, Jim Zangla, Lee Gremillion, Al Wettermark, Ronald Welch, James Swinnen, Steve D'Angelo.

A reminder of spirit, our stuffed eagle, guards his domain of the school library.

Golden Eagle 'Alex Finally Comes Home

Alex, the golden eagle and Menard's mascot, has found a new home in the Alexandria City Zoo.

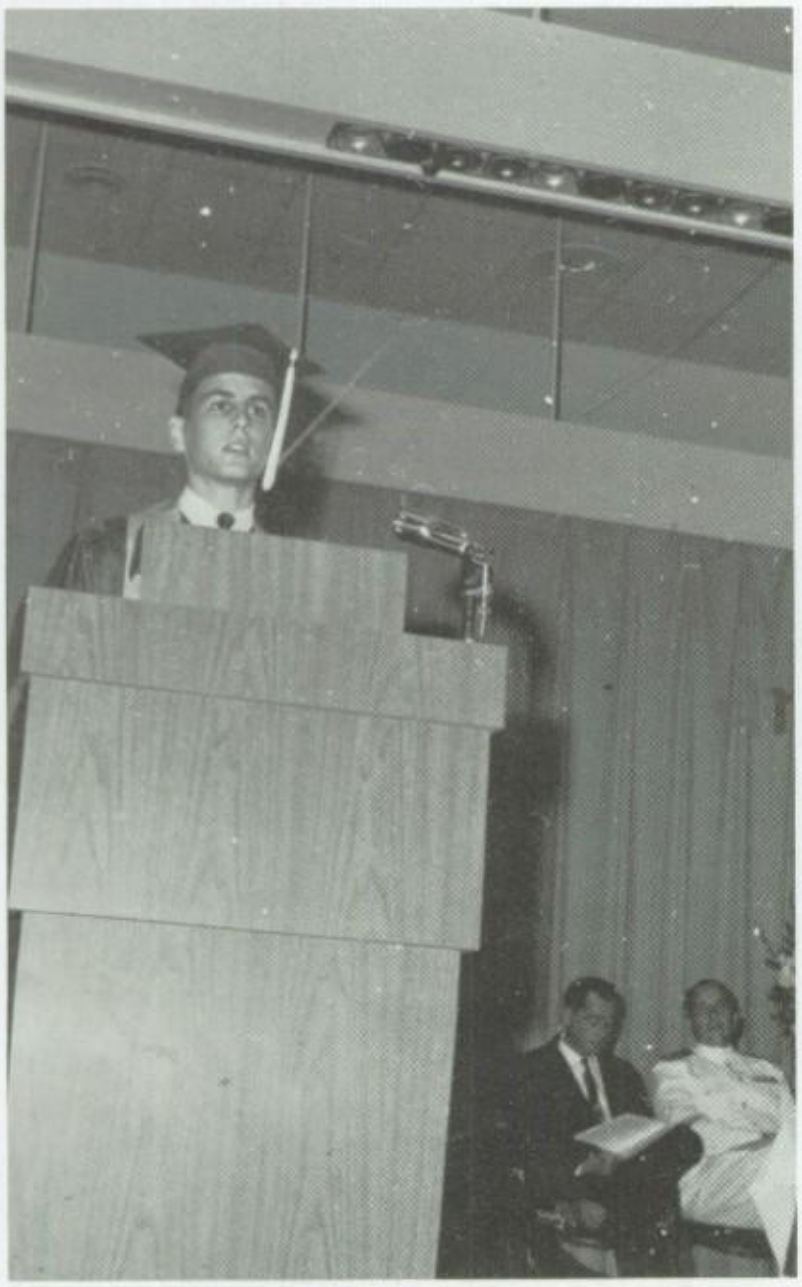
AFTER THREE YEARS OF WAITING, Menardians have finally acquired an official mascot—a golden eagle. Mainly through the efforts of the Key Club and especially of Mrs. Neil Chandler, an officer of the Menard Mothers' Club, the Federal Government shipped us an eagle which had been captured in New Mexico.

As a result of a school wide contest, the new eagle was dubbed "Alex". The Alexandria City Zoo is supplying the "housing" for Alex.

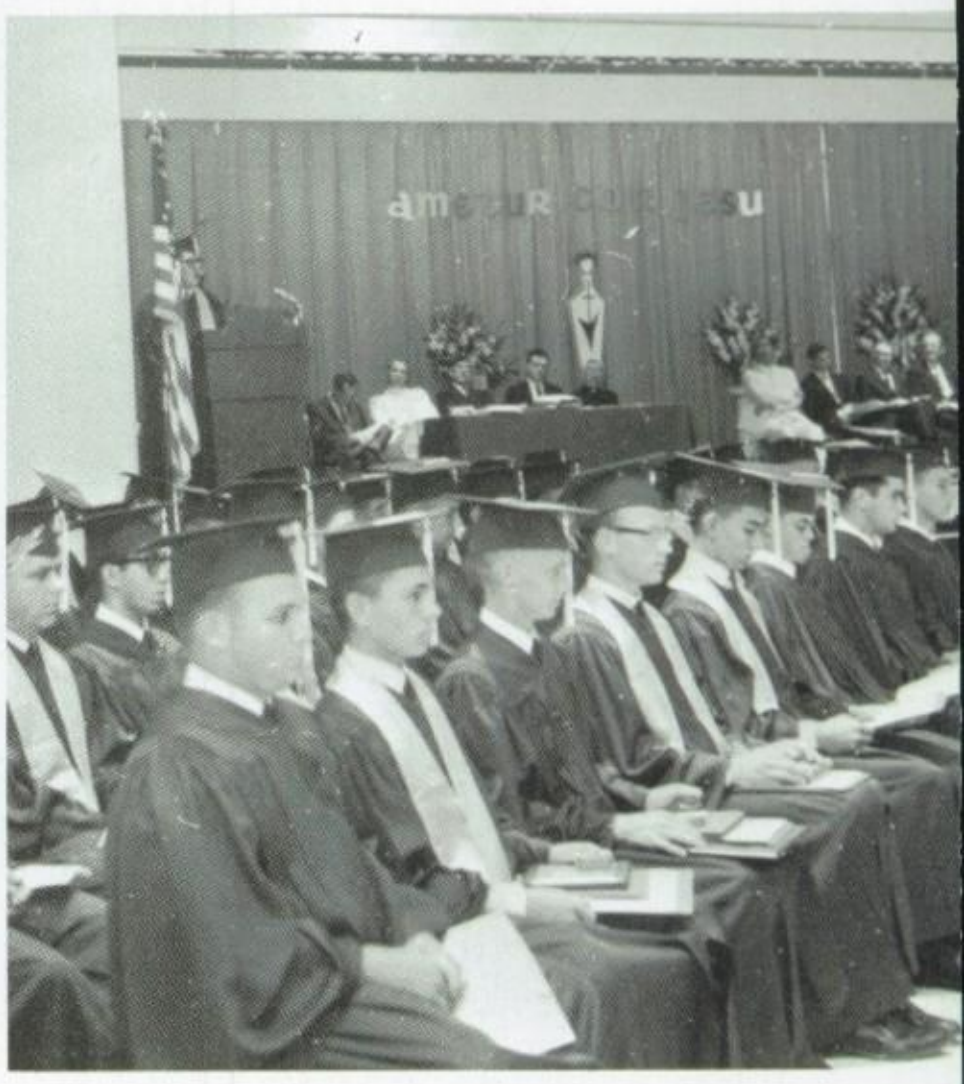
Under way now is the Key Club's follow-up project of building a portable cage so that the eagle may be brought to pep rallies and home games.

Class Night

Senior



Salutatorian, Francis J. David, delivers an address to the audience.



Seniors ponder high school achievements.

Entrance of Menard seniors proved to be a solemn moment.

Brings Out Abilities

CLASS NIGHT tends to herald the atmosphere which will prevail at Graduation. As honors are bestowed upon Menard's seniors, tension increases and expectation reaches its peak. This exercise will long after linger in the minds of those present. Although these eager young men will not remember all that is said here, the ideas which they will possess will serve to guide them as they leave our halls.

Triumphant and joyous, seniors will celebrate this event and prepare themselves for the forthcoming ceremonies.

Michael Carey leads the seniors out of the hall as Class Night activities end.

Father Warren Larroque delivers the graduation address to the graduating seniors.

Graduation Highlights Four Years of Work

AS THE SCHOOL YEAR draws to a close one thought is evident in the minds of the graduating seniors: commencement exercises bring to an end four years of joy and sorrow, of anticipation.

In one of the last actions of their high school career, the graduates of Menard and Providence High Schools gathered at Our Lady of Prompt Succor Church to participate in the Baccalaureate Mass celebrated by Rt. Rev. Msgr. A.O. Olinger.

At the Alexandria Convention Hall the seniors received their diplomas from His Excellency The Most Reverend Charles P. Greco, Bishop of Alexandria.

The graduation address was delivered by Father Warren Larroque, Principal of St. Fredericks of Monroe.

Commencement exercises closed with Benediction celebrated by Bishop Greco.

Bishop Charles Greco closes Commencement exercises with Benediction.

Epilogue

Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,

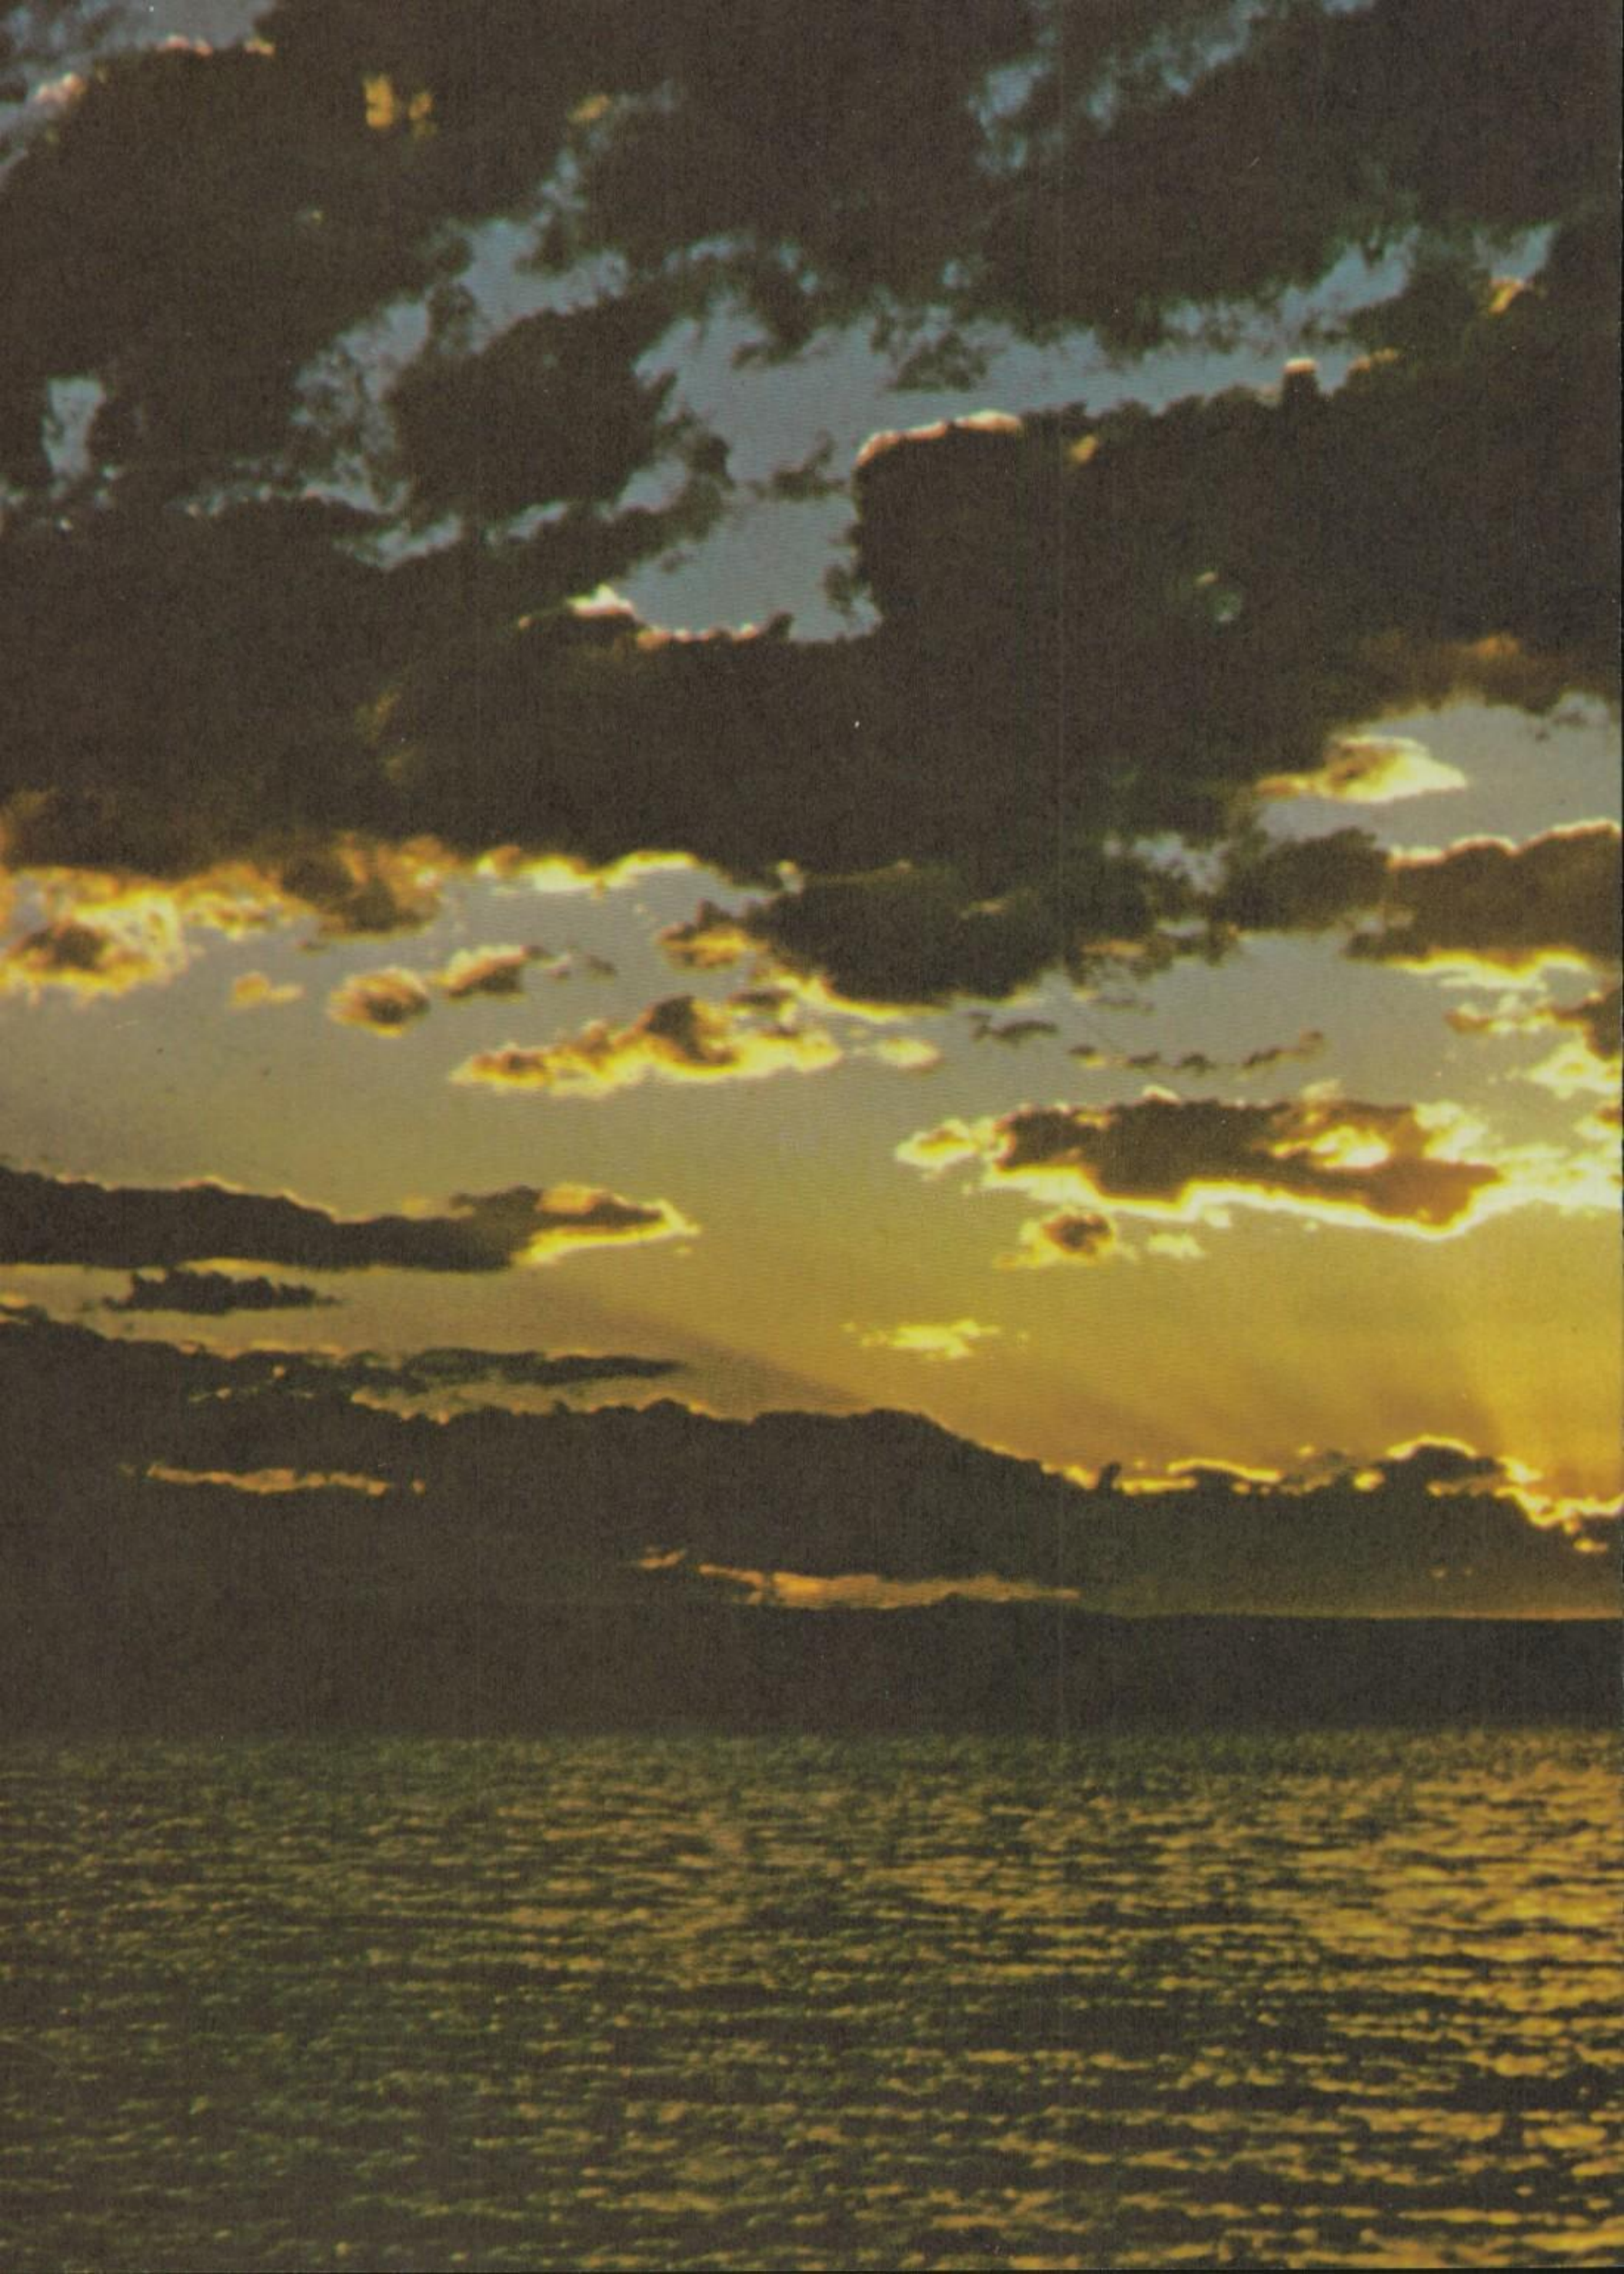
As the swift seasons roll!

Leave thy low-vaulted past!

Let each new temple, nobler than the last,

Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,

Till thou at length art free,

Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!


O. W. Holmes
